Get Ready to Release your Inner Leader

As a Manager or Trainer, you hold the keys to the success of your sales team. The Levitin Group three-day Showtime workshop will show you how to use those keys to unlock engaged, energetic closers who follow to your leadership and share your passion. VPG's soar, your life becomes less stressful and everybody wins.

Your Team Wants to Win Too!

Our industry is dynamic and exciting. The lucrative rewards for success in our business attract greater numbers of new talent each year - eager to learn, grow and win. As the talent pool grows, so does our challenge in delivering the consistent results associated with a highly seasoned sales team. That means as leaders and trainers, we need to work harder and more often with our teams to ensure their longevity and success. Learn techniques that instantly strengthen your leadership, inspire your team and instill a passion to win. Simply put, attending Showtime will help you take your team to new levels of success!

Showtime will help you to create a consistent, cohesive selling machine that reacts and responds to shifts in your strategy. Your team wants to believe, they want to perform and they want to make money... so let's engage them and give them the tools they need to get there. Ladies and Gentlemen, it's Showtime!

Frequently Asked Questions

How Will Showtime Benefit Me?

Showtime graduates receive life-changing benefits that help catapult their careers, elevate the success of those they train and enhance bottom-line performance for their companies. As an attendee, some of the benefits you will receive include:

- Reduce the time and effort it takes to develop your training program, while increasing its effectiveness, through the use of facilitated learning.
- Network, share and learn from your industry peers. At Showtime, trainers, managers and directors from across the globe discuss real-life solutions to everyday training challenges.
- Learn how to properly coach and mentor your people to make them more effective.
- Bring the fun back into training by creating an entertaining and interactive learning environment.
- Discover how to use games and contests to engage everyone in your training class.
- Receive valuable tools for one-on-one rides and for maintaining consistency in the sales presentation.
- Understand the four pillars of effective training, including: education, entertainment, coaching and facilitation.

Who Should Attend

Any individual or team who is directly responsible for managing, training, motivating and developing salespeople on a daily basis. If you aspire to be the best trainer or leader possible then you need to be there.

What's the Price?

The cost of this course is $5,995 per person. Special pre-registration pricing and a corporate group discount rate is available (www.golevitin.com for details) There will be a discounted lodging/meals/activities plan available to all attendees. Transportation to and from the event will be paid separately. Ask a Levitin Group representative about special early registration pricing and group discounts for five or more attendees.
